Senate Bills

SB 5463 by Senators Morton, Hochstatter, Stevens, Oke and McCaslin

Addressing issues of surplus hatchery-reared fish.

Finds that federal fishery agencies are mandating that major modifications be implemented immediately without a thorough analysis of the impacts, an evaluation of less impacting alternatives, or documentation of the anticipated impacts.

Finds there are questions as to whether federal agencies have based their policies on only one of a number of possible interpretations of federal law.

Finds that the state's fishery resource, dependent and affected communities, and the state's economy could be unnecessarily and permanently harmed by overly precipitous federal action.

Declares that, until June 30, 2003, to the extent not inconsistent with federal law, there shall be a moratorium placed on implementation of orders issued by federal fishery agencies that do not comply with the provisions of this act. During the period the moratorium is in effect, representatives of the executive and the legislative branches of the state of Washington shall consult with their counterparts in the states of Oregon, Idaho, and Montana and involved federal fishery agencies, to examine the basis for federal policies that order destruction of significant populations of salmonids and their eggs and sperm, and to evaluate alternatives that have less impact to the salmonid resource, to dependent and affected communities, and to each state's economy.

Requires that, by December 15, 2002, the department of fish and wildlife shall submit a report that provides a list of the alternative policies that were considered together with the estimated impact of each alternative to the fishery resource, to dependent and affected communities, and to Washington's economy. The report shall be submitted to the chief clerk of the house of representatives and the secretary of the senate.

SB 5465 by Senators Costa, Hargrove and Long

Changing provisions relating to sex offender treatment providers.

Finds that the state needs an increasing number of certified sex offender treatment providers to treat sexually violent predators and meet the state's commitment to long-term treatment, help reduce recidivism, and more adequately provide for the community.

Recognizes that these treatment providers offer a valuable service to the people of Washington and may experience difficulty maintaining adequate liability protection given the inherent uncertainties of providing treatment to sexually violent predators.

Declares an intent to provide very limited immunity, for instances of simple negligence only, to certified sex offender treatment providers for their treatment decisions involving sexually violent predators released to a less restrictive alternative under chapter 71.09 RCW.

SB 5467 by Senators Constantine, Jacobsen and Regala; by request of Department of Fish and Wildlife

Providing the department of fish and wildlife with a range of enforcement options to enforce the hydraulic code.

Finds that violations of the hydraulic code may range from relatively minor infractions to serious offenses. Many of the more serious offenses result in destruction of fish life and habitat because work is being conducted in an improper way, or at the incorrect time of the year.

Recognizes that, given the wide range in violations, the department of fish and wildlife needs a range of enforcement authorities. Minor offences need to be dealt with as infractions with accompanying small fines, while serious offenses need to be prosecuted as gross misdemeanors.

Recognizes that, when violations lead to destruction of fish life and habitat, such actions must be expeditiously terminated, and that the violator must remediate the nonconforming site.

SB 5475 by Senators B. Sheldon, West, Sheahan and McCaslin

Modifying the business and occupation tax on certain motor vehicle sales.

Recognizes that dealers located outside Washington sell motor vehicles to Washington customers and use in-state dealers to facilitate the sales by preparing the vehicles for delivery and delivering them to the buyers in this state.

Recognizes that when a selling dealer has a physical presence or "nexus" in this state it requires payment of the tax imposed by chapter 82.04 RCW. Selling dealers have nexus in Washington when the vehicles are located in this state at the time of the sale and are received by the customer or the customer's agent in this state.

Finds that businesses with nexus are entitled to an easy, simple, and efficient method to account for and pay the tax imposed by chapter 82.04 RCW on these sales.

Declares an intent to eliminate this disadvantage by providing a limited sales tax exemption for the sale of conifer tree seeds to be used to grow timber outside Washington, or sold to an Indian tribe or member to grow timber in Indian country, if upon sale the seed is immediately placed into freezer storage operated by the seller.
